A HEALTH MOVEMENT INAUGURATED AMONG THE NEGRO POPULATION OF WILMINGTON, N. C.

Prof. Ch. W. Stiles reports August 8, 1911:

A public-health movement has been inaugurated in Wilmington, N. C., among the colored population, a good roads and health association having been formed among them. After conference with the health officer it was decided to hold health rallies at the various negro churches Sunday afternoons. The speakers for the first meeting were the mayor, one of the members of the city council, the health officer, and Prof. Stiles. There were possibly 800 to 1,000 negroes present, and considerable interest was manifested.
